

REGULATION NO 19

INTERNAL QUALITY ASSURANCE CELLS OF FACULTIES OF LYCEUM CAMPUS

1. Introduction and Context

Maintaining the highest academic quality and standards is crucial to the Lyceum Campus. As a key to achieving an internal quality system designed to ensure Campus manages its own quality and standards efficiently and effectively and develop a culture of continuous improvement and enhancement “Academic Quality Assurance Policy Framework of the Lyceum Campus” was formulated in May 2022.

The Academic Quality Assurance Policy Framework clearly spells out Campus’s strategy for quality and standards, organization of an effective and efficient quality assurance system, , associated procedures and Codes of Practices and other instruments that shall serve as benchmarks and guidelines for implementation of the quality assurance policy.

A significant feature of the Policy Framework is the setting up of a Joint Campus Council and Academic Syndicate standing Committee named as Lyceum Campus Academic Quality and Standards Committee (AQSC) (annexure) which forms an” apex quality structure “ driving the internal quality assurance system centrally and through the Internal Quality Assurance Cells (IQACs) of the Faculties peripherally.

The Apex Quality Structure , ie Academic Quality Assurance Committee comes under the purview of the President and it is affiliated to the Academic Affairs Division of the central administration, for administrative purpose and logistic support. Quality assurance reports shall be submitted as a regular agenda item in both Council and Academic Syndicate .

The IQACs come under the purview of the respective Deans of Faculties. The Internal Quality Assurance Cells (IQAC) will coordinate all quality assurance activities within the respective Faculty in liaison with AQSC. Quality assurance report forms a regular agenda item in the Faculty Board.
